

plained table etiquette to members of the public, who came to watch medieval life being recreated.

food.
The group re-enacted living history from the Wars of the Roses at St Mary's Guildhall, in Lincoln's High Street.

Members demonstrated medieval life, including music, accounting and food.

a food fair in Market Rasen. There were 32 stalls selling a range of foods – from the Asian Flying Chef to Old Elephant Fudge.

Tracy Dodd from The Cheese Society, which had a stall at the event, said there

TASTY TREATS:

The Tastes of Lincolnshire Food Fair in Market Rasen proved popular with visitors. Pictured left is Latif Miah, the Asian Flying Chef, who was on hand with Indian food.

*Pictures: John Jenkins
Picture reference:
5-4860-01; 12.*